Saint Bernadette Soubirous (April 16th)

Bernadette Soubirous was born in 1844, the first child of an extremely poor miller in the town of Lourdes in southern France. The family was living in the basement of a dilapidated building when on February 11, 1858, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Bernadette in a cave above the banks of the Gave River near Lourdes. Bernadette, 14 years old, was known as a virtuous girl though a dull student who had not even made her first Holy Communion. In poor health, she had suffered from asthma from an early age.

There were 18 appearances in all, the final one occurring on the feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, July 16. Although Bernadette's initial reports provoked skepticism, her daily visions of "the Lady" brought great crowds of the curious. The Lady, Bernadette explained, had instructed her to have a chapel built on the spot of the visions. There, the people were to come to wash in and drink of the water of the spring that had welled up from the very spot where Bernadette had been instructed to dig.

According to Bernadette, the Lady of her visions was a girl of 16 or 17 who wore a white robe with a blue sash. Yellow roses covered her feet, a large rosary was on her right arm. In the vision on March 25 she told Bernadette, "I am the Immaculate Conception." It was only when the words were explained to her that Bernadette came to realize who the Lady was.

During her life, Bernadette suffered much. She was hounded by the public as well as by civic officials until at last she was protected in a convent of nuns. Five years later, she petitioned to enter the Sisters of Notre Dame of Nevers. After a period of illness she was able to make the journey from Lourdes and enter the novitiate. But within four months of her arrival she was given the last rites of the Church and allowed to profess her vows. She recovered enough to become infirmarian and then sacristan, but chronic health problems persisted. She died on April 16, 1879, at the age of 35. Bernadette Soubirous was canonized in 1933.

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Masses can be offered for health and healing, birthday blessings, in thanksgiving, etc. So we encourage you to visit the parish office and register.

MAHALO

(Donation of $10.00 per Mass requested)

I want to thank all the parishioners of St Pius X for accomplishing our parish goal in the Ohana in Christ Annual Appeal.

St. Pius X reached its goal of $7,214 and raised an additional $834!

Once again congratulations to all of you who made this goal possible!

Mahalo,

Fr. Nick Brown, Pastor

SECOND COLLECTION
April 20 & 21

Next week our Second Collection will be for the Diocesan Priest Retirement Fund.

This is a different collection from the Religious Retirement Fund that is done each December.

Coinciding with next weekend's Good Shepherd Sunday, we are asked to prayerfully consider giving generously to this collection that will directly support our priests who are in their retirement years.

They have given their lives shepherding our communities, and we pray that they are adequately cared for in this next chapter of their lives.

It's a Baby Shower

At Holy Trinity Catholic Church
Walking with Moms
 Respect Life Committee

East Honolulu Vicariate

We are throwing a party and sponsoring a Walking With Moms Baby Shower. To celebrate new moms, new families and new life. Sunday, May 19, 2-4 pm, in the Holy Trinity gym.

Here's how you can help:

- * Volunteer for one of our committees:
 Set up/Decorate
 Refreshments
 Clean Up
- * Sponsor a Baby Gift Basket
- * Donate an item of need from our Angel Board
- * Invite a new or expecting mom (and her family) to attend the shower
- ❖ Plan to attend the party with your family

We would love to have you help us celebrate life! RSVP for the party or let us know how you would like to help.
