Thanksgiving Prayer

O God, when I have food,
help me to remember the hungry;
When I have work,
help me to remember the jobless;
When I have a home,
help me to remember those who have no home at all;
When I am without pain,
help me to remember those who suffer,
And remembering,
help me to destroy my complacency;
be concerned enough to help;
By word and deed,
those who cry out for what we take for granted.
Amen.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES HAWAI'I

October 26, 2026

Fr. Nicholas Brown
St. Pius X Church
2821 Lowrey Ave
Honolulu, HI 96822-1644

Dear Fr. Nicholas,

Thank you for your parish gift of $676.00 received on 10/19/2026 in support of Catholic Charities Sunday. Your partnership helps those in our community with the greatest need in countless ways, such as with housing assistance for families and individuals, supporting foster youth, providing mental health counseling, keeping seniors healthy and active, and much more.

By standing alongside us, you have made a significant difference in the lives of those who depend on our services. We recently received a heartfelt testimonial from someone who benefited from CCH's programs, and their words beautifully capture the impact your gift has made:

"Catholic Charities treated us with respect and truly cared about our well-being when my family and I were homeless and living in our car. A lot of things changed for us after they helped us into housing. We still have a long way to go, but we finally feel like a family again. Thank you for changing our lives. I don't know where we would be if you weren't there for us." (R.L.)

For nearly 80 years, Catholic Charities Hawai'i has provided a wide range of social services and programs to people in need. With the help of supporters like you, last year we touched the lives of more than 70,000 individuals and families with dignity, compassion, social justice, and a commitment to excellence.

Together, we continue the ministry of Jesus in serving people in need. We give thanks for friends like you who help us to empower and improve the lives of our brothers and sisters.

Mahalo nui loa and God bless!

A Catholic Explanation of Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving, while not a liturgical feast in the Catholic Church, naturally aligns with core Catholic beliefs: gratitude, providence, charity, and recognizing God as the source of every blessing.

1. Thanksgiving Begins With God Catholics understand all good gifts—life, family, faith, work, and creation—as coming from God.

Scripture constantly calls believers to give thanks: • "Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever." (Psalm 118:1) • "In all circumstances give thanks." (1 Thessalonians 5:18)

A Catholic celebration of Thanksgiving is rooted in acknowledging God's ongoing generosity.

2. The Eucharist Is the Highest Thanksgiving The word Eucharist literally means "thanksgiving."

Every Mass is the Church's greatest act of gratitude—Christ offering Himself to the Father, and the faithful uniting our thanks to His perfect sacrifice. Many Catholics choose to attend Thanksgiving Day Mass, giving God thanks before the feast.

3. The Virtue of Gratitude Catholic tradition teaches that gratitude is a virtue that keeps our hearts:

• Humble • Joyful • Aware of God's presence

St. Ignatius of Loyola said the "greatest sin is ingratitude" because it forgets the goodness of God.

4. Thanksgiving Calls Us to Charity A Catholic Thanksgiving isn't only about receiving blessings but also sharing them. This includes:

• Feeding the hungry • Visiting the lonely • Supporting parish ministries • Giving thanks by giving to others

We imitate the saints—especially St. Elizabeth of Hungary and St. Vincent de Paul—who saw gratitude and charity as inseparable.

5. Family, Community, and Faith Thanksgiving offers a natural moment for families to pray and reflect together.

A typical Catholic Thanksgiving prayer may include:

• Remembering loved ones • Thanking God for His providence • Asking blessings on the meal • Praying for peace, healing, and those in need

Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving Prayer can be recited on Thanksgiving day, an American holiday that occurs on Thursday of the last week of November. It is a time when family and friends come together to give thanks for their blessings during the course of that year. Though there is a common holiday named Thanksgiving Day, that is not the only time we say a Thanksgiving prayer.

Thanksgiving Prayer Good and gracious God, we give You thanks today, as we do all days, first and foremost for the gift of creation and the gift of life. We ask You to bless this food, that it may nourish us and sustain us, and strengthen our ability to do Your will. We pray in thanksgiving for all the hands involved in bringing it to our table. You tell us, Lord, that to whom much is given, much is expected. May this meal and the fellowship we enjoy not only serve as clear reminders of Your love of us, but of Your call for us to share Your love and to serve our brothers and sisters, especially those most in need. We ask this as we ask all things, through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Thanksgiving Prayers Remembering Those Who've Died

Heavenly Father, we come to You today with grateful hearts, recognizing the many gifts You've given us that have allowed for this special meal to come together. Still, we acknowledge our sadness that our gathering today feels incomplete. We lift up to You our dearly departed, [Say names of lost loved ones] and ask You to bless them as you bless us. We're comforted by the promise of Your Kingdom and look forward to one day sharing together in a heavenly feast with all those who are not with us today. In Your name, we pray. Amen.

Thanksgiving Prayer Father in Heaven, Creator of all and source of all goodness and love, please look kindly upon us and receive our heartfelt gratitude in this time of giving thanks. Thank you for all the graces and blessings. You have betowed upon us, spiritual and temporal: our faith and religious heritage. Our food and shelter, our health, the loves we have for one another, our family and friends. Dear Father, in Your infinite generosity, please grant us continued graces and blessing throughout the coming year. This we ask in the Name of Jesus, Your Son and our Brother. Amen.

Help Me – Thanksgiving Day Prayer

O God, when I have food, help me to remember the hungry; When I have work, help me to remember the jobless; When I have a home, help me to remember those who have no home at all; When I am without pain, help me to remember those who suffer, And remembering, help me to destroy my complacency; bestir my compassion, and be concerned enough to help; By word and deed, those who cry out for what we take for granted. Amen.
