Devotions to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Blessed Virgin Mary

Anyone currently doing devotions to the Sacred Heart of Jesus or the Blessed Virgin Mary, would you please call the parish office at 808-988-3308 before November 17. Fr. Norlito is interested in knowing how many people are doing these devotions. Thank you to those who have notified us.

Our Stewardship Prayer

Generous and Loving Creator, you have called us to

Maalama i ka Makana (Cherish the Gift). As disciples of your Son, we ask that your Spirit open our minds and hearts to more deeply appreciate your countless blessings. Increase your transforming spirit within us, so as to nurture our call to stewardship as a way of life marked always by faith-filled prayer, service to others and generous giving. With the kokua of St. Marianne and St. Damien, teach us to be good stewards so we may return a hundred-fold the makana entrusted to us. We pray this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Mission Statement:

Living the Gospel of Our Lord as a Community of Faith.

Te Amo Mas Tarde! (A romantic Spanish expression on lost unrequited love)

On this 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time before Christ the King Sunday, we are being romantically led to the importance of our Christian faith and its fullness of truth. Like the theme of the Good Shepherd on the Sunday after Easter, the return of Christ in glory is realized in gathering His elect, and in His everlasting glory being given to those who have persevered after life's great struggles. Judgment Day is coming, and Jesus assures us of it; perfect justice will reign. While the virtuous will not fear it because they will rise with Jesus in eternal happiness, the wicked will fear the day, because the consequences of their rejection of God and His call to conversion through Jesus will be manifested.

God created a perfect world in the next as an answer to the injustices of this world (Venerable Fulton Sheen), but the realization of Heaven is but a foretaste of what is yet to come, His Glory (St. Ambrose of Milan). But there is hope, because for now He is our friend, and, as it was said beautifully by St. Augustine of Hippo, "Late have I loved you, beauty so old and so new: late have I loved you. And see, you were within me, and I was in the external world and sought you there, and in my unlovely state I plunged into those lovely created things which you made. You were with me, and I was not with you." (The Confessions ch-27) We must give what is due now to our Lord as a friend, for later we won't have to fear him as a judge.

Diocesan Prayer for Vocations (To be prayed starting in November during the mass after Post Communion Prayer)

Heavenly Father, your divine Son taught us to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His vineyard. We earnestly beg you to bless our Diocese and our world with many priests, deacons and religious who will love you fervently and gladly and courageously spend their lives in service to your Son's Church, especially the poor and the needy. Bless our families and our children, and choose from our homes those whom you desire for this holy work. Teach them to respond generously and keep them ever faithful in following your Son Jesus Christ, that under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and with the inspiration of Saint Damien and Saint Marianne the Good News of redemption may be brought to all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Nuns/Sisters in Hawaii

"For us it is happiness to be able to comfort, in a measure, the poor exiles, and we rejoice that we are unworthy agents of our heavenly Father through whom He deigns to show His great love and mercy to the sufferers."

Blessed Mother Marianne Cope, 1884

A woman who enters consecrated life chooses to deepen her baptismal commitment by taking vows which emphasize the values of prayer, loving service, and simple living in community with others. Consecrated women in Hawaii serve the Church and community in many ways, including: youth ministry, homeless and hungry, battered women, education, healthcare, family life and parish pastoral ministry. Some Sisters are totally dedicated to the contemplative life.

The Diocese of Honolulu is blessed to have Women's Religious Orders providing loving service throughout the islands.

Second Collection

Next weekend for Catholic Campaign for Human Development
More than thirty-eight million people in the United states live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities.

Is God Calling Me to be a Priest?

The answer is: possibly. But before we address that question directly, we need to review a few preliminaries. First, while the life of a priest is intimately intertwined with the ministry to which he is called, his action flows from his identity. A priest can hold many different titles or “jobs” over the course of his active ministry. However, his identity is one and the same throughout. He is a priest of Jesus Christ, in a particular relationship with God and his Church. Second, like any relationship, in which the identities of those engaged is revealed over the course of a lifetime, so also in the lifetime of the priest does his identity unfold in a way known beforehand only by God alone.
