Advent – Week One

Reflect, today, upon the burning desire in the heart of Christ that we form this holy habit of always being attentive to Him and always remain in a state of constant reception of His holy presence in our lives. Let Him come to you, today, now, and do not wait. Put your eyes on Him today. Do not put off to tomorrow that which Jesus is asking of you today. Doing so will not only prepare you for His final and glorious coming at the end of the world, it will also prepare you for the daily and total transformation of your life.

My ever-present Lord, You constantly come to me at an unexpected hour to pour forth Your grace and mercy into my life. Help me to form within me a permanent habit of preparedness by which I continually open myself to You and to Your perfect will for my life. May this Advent be a true time in which my readiness to meet You increases a hundredfold. Jesus, I trust in You.

Our Stewardship Prayer

Generous and Loving Creator, you have called us to

Maalama i ka Makana (Cherish the Gift). As disciples of your Son, we ask that your Spirit open our minds and hearts to more deeply appreciate your countless blessings. Increase your transforming spirit within us, so as to nurture our call to stewardship as a way of life marked always by faith-filled prayer, service to others and generous giving. With the kokua of St. Marianne and St. Damien, teach us to be good stewards so we may return a hundred-fold the makana entrusted to us. We pray this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Benite Adoremus!

Today, we begin a new liturgical year (Cycle-C Year-II). This Advent, while professing our faith in the glorious coming of the Lord at the end of time, we do not sing the Gloria, so that we may be reminded of our anticipation for the coming of the Messiah. And while we prepare four Sundays to celebrate the wonder of Christmas, we are reminded of Christ coming into our lives through the sacraments of the church. We must ask ourselves how many times we offended Him and his honor by not adequately preparing ourselves to receive Him, how we became proud of even daring to approach Him while not in the state of grace - by not going to confession to admit our faults, by being proud in thinking that we are not in need of forgiveness, by thinking that we can approach and receive Him in the Eucharist as if we are only eating a piece of bread, and by not recognizing the humanity of Jesus in our neighbor. "Let us worship well!"

The beginning of liturgical "Year C" relies upon guidance from the Gospel of St. Luke, a collection of orderly accounts of eyewitnesses of Jesus, and of the earliest apostles and disciples of Jesus. Aside from being witnesses in the spirit, St. Luke wanted us to conserve and not just to observe the teachings of the "Apostles and The Master." As such, we must be ready to be witnesses and inheritors of such a treasure more precious than gold. Let us light our vigil lamps and candles as we await the coming of the Lord - who is with us, the Emmanuel. Maranatha! Come Lord!

Diocesan Prayer for Vocations

(To be prayed starting in November during the mass after Post Communion Prayer)

Heavenly Father, your divine Son taught us to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His vineyard. We earnestly beg you to bless our Diocese and our world with many priests, deacons and religious who will love you fervently and gladly and courageously spend their lives in service to your Son's Church, especially the poor and the needy. Bless our families and our children, and choose from our homes those whom you desire for this holy work. Teach them to respond generously and keep them ever faithful in following your Son Jesus Christ, that under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and with the Inspiration of Saint Damien and Saint Marianne the Good News of redemption may be brought to all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Kids Prayer for Advent

To be prayed with your children before bed or before Sunday Mass

My little Lord Jesus, I love You and thank You for this Advent season. Please help me to understand all that You have done for me. Your loving mother held You in her heart and brought You into this world. Help me to do the same.

My loving Jesus, I choose You, this Advent, as my King and my God. Draw me close to You and help me to see my sins so that I can change the things that You want me to change.

Mother Mary, pray for me this Advent so that I may do all that God wants me to do. You said “Yes” to all that God asked of you. Please pray for me that I may do the same.

Come, Lord Jesus,
Come, Lord Jesus,
Come, Lord Jesus, come!
I love You, Jesus.
Amen.

Priests' Convocation:
November 29 - December 3

All priests of the Diocese will be away from their parish for the Convocation. Together they will pray, discuss common issues with Bishop, as well as socialize and strengthen fraternity. What does that mean for our parish? We will not have Mass Mon., Nov. 29 through Fri., Dec. 3. Instead, a Communion Service at 7:30 am on those days.
