We do know that both Philip and James saw the risen Jesus. Like St. Paul, in our first reading, they could say, "He appeared to me" (1Corinthians 15:8). For these early Christians, seeing Jesus risen from the dead made all the difference. His resurrection validated everything that Jesus had said and done during his ministry. Because Jesus rose, they were not afraid to face opposition, persecution, even martyrdom. They knew that death would not have the final word—not for Jesus and not for them.

But we live two thousand years after Jesus. How can we have this same confidence in the Lord and assurance of eternal life? As it did for Philip and James, it begins with an encounter with the risen Jesus.

Even now, Jesus is still "appearing" to people. We won't see him physically the way Philip and James did. And we probably won't see a flashing light as Paul did (Acts 9:3). But we can know, deep within our hearts, that Jesus is real, that he is with us, that he is risen.

We will recognize his presence as he calms our hearts and fills us with peace. We will become convinced that he is risen as we experience him helping us overcome habits of sin and teaching us to love our neighbors. We will be assured that he knows and loves us as he answers our prayers or reminds us of just the right Scripture passage to help us face our circumstances.

Jesus longs for every believer to say, "He appeared to me (1 Corinthians 15:8). Today, let him reveal himself to you.

"Jesus, help me to see you today."

We Live in Him, He in Us
John 15:1-8

Jesus declares that he is the vine and we are the branches. He is the power and energy source in which we live. This image is closely related to Paul's metaphor of the Body of Christ.

The point is that we live in him and he in us. Jesus is the source of supernatural life in us, and without him, we would have none of it. If, therefore, you are separated from the vine, you will die spiritually; you will stop living a supernatural life.

What does this look like concretely, to be attached to the vine? It means a steady immersion in the prayer of the Church. It means steady communion with God, speaking to him on a regular basis. It means an immersion in the Scriptures, soaking in the truth of the Bible. It means engaging in the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

And, of course, it means you must participate in the sacraments—especially Confession and the Eucharist. By the sacraments, we stay close to the Christ who forgives our sins and who enlivens our spirits.

Attention: Current and future altar servers
Anyone interested in becoming an Altar Server or is currently an Altar server, please come for training and for a refresher course on May 8 at 10:00 a.m. in the church. Seminararian Arrion Rosales-Llantos assigned at Sacred Heart will be the trainer. After the training and at the 4:00 p.m. mass on May 8, Fr. Rico will commission and recommission all altar servers.

Thank you.

Reminder: Adoration and Benediction, May 7 at 8:00 a.m.
Adoration calls us to take a break from our busy lives and enter into quiet contemplation. The blessings are abundant — most especially the opportunity to spend time in the presence of our eucharistic Lord and deepen our relationship with him. And while it's true that we can walk into any Catholic church in the world and pray before the tabernacle at any time, there is something to be said about the eucharistic presence, the grace of joining together as the Body of Christ, all called to Eucharistic Adoration. Where two or three are gathered, indeed.

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Masses can be offered for health and healing, birthday blessings, in thanks-giving, etc. So we encourage you to visit the parish office and register.

A priest is always free to accept an offering for less than or more than the standard amount.

Thank you:
