

Saint Thomas Aquinas is the preeminent spokesman of the Catholic tradition of reason and of divine revelation. He is one of the great teachers of the medieval Catholic Church, honored with the titles Doctor of the Church and Angelic Doctor. Feast Day - January 28

St. Catherine of Siena

St. Thomas Aquinas

St. Dominic

St. Albert Magnus

St. Martin de Porres

St. Catherine of Siena, Dominican tertiary, mystic, and one of the patron saints of Italy. She was declared a doctor of the church in 1970 and a patron saint of Europe in 1999. Feast Day April 29.

Saint Albertus Magnus followed the instruction of the Blessed Virgin Mother and became the most significant German philosopher and theologian in the Medieval Period. St. Albertus Magnus, the oldest son of a wealthy lord in Bollstadt, Germany, and was born in his family's castle at Lauingen (now Bavaria, Germany) sometime in 1205 or 1206. Feast Day November 15.

This is a First Class Relic on Display in the Sanctuary

There are three classes of sacred relics. The first-class is a part of the saints body. The second-class is a piece of the saints clothing or something used by the saint, while the third-class is an object which has been touched to a first-class relic.

St. Dominic, Spanish in full Santo Domingo de Guzmán, (born c. 1170, Caleruega, Castile [Spain]—died August 6, 1221, Bologna, Romagna [Italy]; canonized July 3, 1234; feast day August 8), founder of the Order of Friars Preachers (Dominicans), a mendicant religious order with a universal mission of preaching, a centralized organization and government, and a great emphasis on scholarship. Feast day August 8

St. Martin de Porres, Martin's life reflected his great love for God and all of God's gifts. It is said he had many extraordinary abilities, including aerial flights, bilocation, instant cures, miraculous knowledge, spiritual knowledge and an excellent relationship with animals. Martin also founded an orphanage for abandoned children and slaves and is known for raising dowry for young girls in short amounts of time. During an epidemic in Lima, many of the friars in the Convent of the Rosary became very ill. Locked away in a distant section of the convent, they were kept away from the professed. However, on more than one occasion, Martin passed through the locked doors to care for the sick. However, he became disciplined for not following the rules of the Convent, but after replying, "Forgive my error, and please instruct me, for I did not know that the precept of obedience took precedence over that of charity," he was given full liberty to follow his heart in mercy. Feast day November 3

Mission Statement:
Living the Gospel of Our Lord as a Community of Faith.

JESUS, THE DIVINE NOURISHMENT FOR THE NAVIGATORS

To what shall we compare life? Life can be compared to a journey. For indeed, our life is in many ways is like a journey that we want to undertake. Whether our journey can be done by air, land, or sea, uncertainties or unexpected events may occur that is beyond our control and expectations. We ask the Lord to be the companion in our journey, just as He accompanied, protected, and nourished the Chosen People. Prophet Elijah journeys through the desert, was aided by God. He sends him an angel who gave the prophet food that strengthen him and gave him speed to accomplish great distances. On his rest upon a rock, God did not allow him to be touched by his enemies, but instead, surrounded him with unassailable fire.

In the journey of our life, God always shows His concern for our wellbeing and nourishment, and through the presence of our Lord Jesus, our Bread of Life, we are guaranteed that we will not collapse in our way, and He is there to take away whatever snare or hindrances placed on our path. May his life-giving Word be with us, may He, the Bread that came down from heaven, sustain and strengthen us. May the Holy Eucharistic be a bread for the journey and our reliable walking stick along the rocky paths of life, lastly, may the Eucharist be the navigating star that never sets on the perilous waves of our life's journey.
