Our Stewardship Prayer

Generous and Loving Creator, you have called us to Maalama i ka Makana (Cherish the Gift). As disciples of your Son, we ask that your Spirit open our minds and hearts to more deeply appreciate your countless blessings. Increase your transforming spirit within us, so as to nurture our call to stewardship as a way of life marked always by faith-filled prayer, service to others and generous giving. With the kokua of St. Marianne and St. Damien, teach us to be good stewards so we may return a hundred-fold the makana entrusted to us. We pray this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Great Time to Decide

From 72 disciples, Jesus found himself only with the twelve whom he will later call his apostles and a few believers. (Mostly women), after his great revelation that he is the bread of life that is meant to be sacrificed for the salvation of the world. The 72 who before were given authority against evil spirits, to do marvelous miracles and to preach the coming of the kingdom was reduced after the hard revelation of Truth. Life experiences often leads us on a time in our life when we have to make drastic choices that may have a great impact on our life, profession, work, ministry, and even our plans and goals. The most fundamental choice concerns our relationship with Jesus Christ is to weather abandoning him once we have a divine experience of Him or go further an extra mile or more with Him by submitting our trust in him. We are constantly challenged to choose between faithfulness to his teachings and the allurements of the rationalistic, hedonistic and materialistic world in which we are immersed, and to even sometime make the resignation of accepting His Truth even if its uncomfortable because it contradicts what we want. This is a choice that demands both wisdom and generosity. Wisdom leads us to stand by Jesus in times of prosperity and happiness and in times of great trials. Generosity enables us to pay the price for choosing to follow Jesus and to let go of our personal aspirations and desires for the advancement of the Truth of His Gospel. The road to calvary is about to begin as Jesus forms the remaining 12 disciples and instruct his few remaining followers. The courageous and generous will be the elites, the founding body of the church who will later make up the major members of the celestial court of Jesus. There are still available seats, do we have the courage to say yes and make our yes a commitment, or should we be just on the sidelines while those who endure receive their rewards.

In our sanctuary

Saint Monica, Feast Day August 27
and Saint Augustine,
Feast Day August 28

Saint Monica, you were persevering in your efforts to straighten the crooked paths of your son's life. Your prayers, pilgrimages, fasts, and words were fruitful, but only after many tears. Help us to be as concerned as you for the immortal souls of those who are close to us.

Exemplary Mother of the Great Augustine, you perseveringly pursued your wayward son, not with wild threats but with prayerful cries to heaven. Intercede for all mothers in our day so that they may learn to draw their children to God. Teach them how to remain close to their children, even the prodigal sons and daughters who have sadly gone astray.
Amen.

St. Pius X Feast Day August 21

Our Prayer to St. Pius X

So deep was your humility, O Holy Pius X, that when you were raised to the summit of the priesthood you shed tears of heartfelt grief, declaring yourself unworthy of the office; by your prayers to God on our behalf, procure for us, too, the grace to be humble in all our doings and to be submissive always to His holy will.

Be our patron, dear St. Pius X, in your loving kindness, to set us free from every evil. And at the moment of our death, come to our assistance, so that we may be with you in Paradise and together with you sing the praises of our Lord and of our Blessed Mother. Amen.

Renew All Things in Christ

Prayer to Pope Saint Pius X

Oh, Pope Saint Pius X, Pope of the Eucharist, pray for me to Jesus Christ that I may get His true Love and live for Him alone. Also pray for me that I get the vigor and will to live a life full of sanctity so that I may enjoy the true rewards of the sacrifice and sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

May I copy your love for the Sweet Virgin Mary, the mother of our Lord Jesus Christ, so that I may also fill my heart with utmost love and tender devotion for her. Dear St. Pius X, pray for the Church of Christ so that we may have an increase in vocations for religious life, where eventually we will get holy and dedicated priests and other clergy.

We ask you that you pray for peace and tranquility in our hearts and nations so that we all dwell under the wonderful regime of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen
