The Desert Fathers Heroes of the Early Christian Ages

Desert Fathers: Early Christian hermits whose practice of asceticism in the Egyptian desert, beginning in the 3rd century, formed the basis of Christian monasticism.

The first Desert Father was Paul of Thebes, (Left Photo) and the most well known was Anthony the Great, (Top Photo) who moved to the desert in AD 270–271 and became known as both the father and founder of desert monasticism. By the time Anthony had died in AD 356, thousands of monks and nuns had been drawn to living in the desert following Anthony's example, leading his biographer, Athanasius of Alexandria, to write that "the desert had become a city. (Bottom photo is the oldest Monastery in the world, St. Catherine Monastery in Mt. Sinai)

Tria Haec: Caritas (Charity) Why Forgiveness is Painful

Those who seek mercy will find it, those who have no humility will not find reward. The greatest charity towards oneself is to ask forgiveness. It takes great humility to admit once faults and ask for forgiveness. Admitting faults and even saying apologies takes a lot of energy, it is like dying to oneself. Often, our pride and ego can get the best of us. What prevent us form admitting our transgressions is indeed our pride, because we do not want to admit our weakness, and asking or giving forgiveness can be appear to us as a sign of weakness and vulnerability. A feeling that if we show such weakness, our weakness can be used against us. Therefore, the practice Virtue of Charity is the hardest of all the three theological virtues. It is better to give what is surplus instead of a part of ourselves. Giving what is abundant in us cannot be considered as an act of charity, its just a practice of unloading what we do not need, but charity is giving oneself, allowing oneself to have a vacant space in us, and even emptying out.

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God’s humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God’s most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life —especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.
