Bl. Ana De San Bartolome, OCarm-D.

The Holy Secretary of St. Teresa of Avila.

She was born on 10.10.1549 in Almendral (Avila), from a family poor in material goods, but very good Christians. She entered the Carmel of San José de Avila in 1570. She was the first legate of the Reform of Santa Teresa. She from the beginning was very dear to the Holy Doctor, in whose hands she made her vows on 15.8.1572. Through the work of God, the merits of Saint Teresa and the obedience of this Blessed, she rose from a simple convert and illiterate sister to the very particular secretary of the mystical doctor. In this way, she became a favorite disciple and heiress of Teresa's spirit, just as the prophet Elisha was of the great seer Elijah. Such are the processes of the cause of Blessed Anne. Acting as a secretary, she accompanied Santa Teresa on her founding raids. And the Saint, recognizing the value of her personal service and her extraordinary holiness, came to tell her:

"Ana, Ana, you have the works, I have the fame."

She learned to write in a miraculous way. She always stood out for her extraordinary charity, both towards God and towards her neighbor. In her autobiography we read that she longed to die of love and sighed for this joy. Hers is the phrase: "Oh, how heavy this body is! And I'm tired of taking care of it, all I wish would be to see these chains broken!" When Santa Teresa died, she went to France, where she founded several convents, giving marvelous examples of all the virtues. In her Autobiography, written by obedience, she left us a record of the many mystical graces that she enjoyed during her life, as a result of her great love for the Humanity of Jesus and for the Mystery of the Most Holy. Trinity. She died in 1622 and was beatified in 1917 by Pope Benedict XV. <https://es.catholic.net/op/articulos/36177/ana-de-san-bartolom-beata.html#modal>

Tria Haec: Fides (Faith) Part-2

Faith is an entirely free gift that God makes to man. We can lose this priceless gift, as St. Paul indicated to St. Timothy: "Wage the good warfare, holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting conscience, certain persons have made shipwrecks of their faith. "To live, grow and persevere in the faith until the end, we must nourish it with the word of God; we must beg the Lord to increase our faith; it must be "working through charity," abounding in hope, and rooted in the faith of the Church. (CCC162) From one of the definitions of faith in the Catechism of The Catholic Church, our perseverance in keeping the freely given gift of Faith is our form of gratitude to God who gives us faith that we do not deserve. All creation shows gratitude to God in their own ways, while we Humans express our gratitude with actions, and one action of our gratitude is the proper use and even conservation of what we received. The same thing is expected of us in taking care of our God given Faith.

CHURCH CLEANERS

Our small group of cleaners, who gather every Saturday morning around 8 a.m., could use a few more pairs of hands to share in the cleaning and freshening up of our lovely church home in preparation for the Saturday evening and Sunday liturgies. Remember: many willing hands make for less and lighter work.

Celebrate the 10th Anniversary of St. Marianne's Canonization

Ten years ago, on Oct. 21, under glorious blue skies, Pope Benedict XVI canonized Mother Marianne Cope of Molokai, at the Vatican's St. Peter's Square.

The Diocese of Honolulu will celebrate this anniversary with a Mass in the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa 712 North School Street, Honolulu, on Tuesday, Oct. 25 at 6 p.m. (Note time change) Bishop Larry Silva will preside.

A free reception will follow. All are invited.

Registration for Oct. 25 event through Eventbrite is required:
<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/422930234717>

There will also be a Mass on the anniversary date itself, Friday, Oct. 21, at noon at the Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace.

The bishop will also celebrate an anniversary Mass Oct. 23 at 10 a.m. at St. Francis Church, Kalaupapa, Molokai. (private)

A Prayer to St. Joseph, Defender of Life

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life—especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.
