BLESSED CHIARA LUCE BADANO

Beatified: September 25, 2010/Venerated: July 3, 2008/

In 1971, after praying and hoping for a baby for more than 10 years, Ruggero and Teresa Badano of Sassello, Italy, welcomed a little girl whom they named Chiara. Even at the age of four, Chiara seemed aware of the needs of others. She would sort through her toys to give some to poor children, and she would never give away just the old or broken ones. She invited less-fortunate people into the family's home for holidays and visited the elderly at a retirement center. When other children were sick and confined to bed, Chiara visited them. She loved the stories of the Gospel and loved to attend Mass.

When she was 9, Chiara became involved with the Focolare movement and its branch for young people. Focolare emphasizes brotherhood and unity among all people. Chiara was very popular. She had a lot of friends, she played sports, and she loved to sing and dance. But when asked, she said she did not try to bring Jesus to her friends with words. She tried to bring Jesus to them with her example and how she lived her life. When she was 17, Chiara learned she had a very serious form of bone cancer. Treatments were painful and unsuccessful. She became paralyzed. One day someone asked her if she hoped to walk again, and her answer was no. When she suffered, she felt closer to Jesus. She even refused to take pain medication that would make her too sleepy to continue to live her life.

Despite her illness and being confined to bed, Chiara wrote letters and sent messages to others. She attended Focolare youth meetings. She inspired everyone who she encountered with her faith and love for others. She gave all her savings to a friend who was becoming a missionary in Africa. When her life was nearly at an end, she said, "I have nothing left, but I still have my heart, and with that I can always love." Chiara died in 1990. Within nine years, the bishop of her diocese began the work on her cause for canonization. Pope Benedict XVI declared her "Blessed" in 2010. "Only Love with a capital L gives true happiness," and that's what Chiara showed her family, her friends and her fellow members of the Focolare movement, the pope said. She was a normal, everyday girl, and possibly a normal, everyday saint. Chiara's brief life showed us how much one person can accomplish in God's name.

What is Beatification?

Beatification is the declaration that someone has attained the blessedness of heaven and the approval of the title "blessed" (beatus). He or she is then venerated in a limited manner, perhaps by the congregation or the diocese. "Beatification is not an exercise of the office of the pope's infallibility. It also does not give anyone the distinguished right of "being in heaven" nor does it increase the degree of glory or happiness before God. It only gives assurance... that a dead person... is proposed as model and as intercessor before God. The pope may assign a bishop to preside over a beatification.

The Devil's Advocate

In the history of the beatification and canonization of saints in the Roman Catholic Church, there is an officer called "The Devil's Advocate." No, it not a position wherein a person befriends demonic spirits. The official title of this officer is the "Promoter of Faith." His duty is to question the holiness of a candidate for sainthood and to find loopholes in the apparent miracles attributed to the candidate. The interest and honor of the Church are concerned in preventing "fake" candidates from being venerated. The first formal mention of such an officer is found in the canonization of St. Lawrence Justinian. St. John Paul II revised the roles of this officer.

A Thanksgiving Prayer by St. Vincent Meals on Wheels

Heavenly Father,

Today we give thanks for our many blessings as we pray for those in need.

We give thanks for our family and friends as we pray for those who are lonely.
We give thanks for our freedoms as we pray for those who are oppressed.
We give thanks for our good health as we pray for those who are ill.
We give thanks for our comfort and prosperity as we share our blessings with others.

On this day of Thanksgiving, may the love of God enfold us,
The peace of God dwell within us and the joy of God uplift us. Amen.

Winter Cold and Flu Season

As always, you are reminded to use common sense for your health and safety during the annual cold and flu season. If you are feeling ill or think you may have been exposed to a virus, you should refrain from coming to Mass. In the same way, you should refrain from offering your hand to others at the sign of peace. A smile and a heartfelt "Peace be with you" should suffice. All of us must be aware of such sensitive matter in the intimate life of the Christian community and we should expect that some will refrain from a physical expression of the sign of peace out of care of our well-being and not out of unkindness or lack of piety.

Divine Justice is Not Blind or Blind Folded

Justice is the virtue that perfects the will, and divine justice is never blind or blind folded. She is all seeing, all knowing, merciful. She doesn't end things but brings them to completion. For this, she is feared the most because she teaches through her verdicts the fear of God. The execution of justice in the world always makes an end to men's work, while divine justice bring to perfection works of men. Jesus utilizes His knowledge of Divine Justice when he said that we should not worry about the end of things because in the end of all things, God will show us the completeness of our happiness, the reward of our toil on a very unjust world. Jesus in the gospel did not require us to act in justice as God, for we are not divine beings, but we imitate His justice as if his judgment is near.
