God is with us

What is the reason why God must become man? According to the catechism of the Catholic Church and our orthodox faith, God became man to show us a model of holiness and communion with God. Jesus must first restore our relationship with God by becoming a human being. As a human being, He who is God, made the Divine close to us. (St. Augustine)

The most basic yet the most intimate way for God to have a new covenant for us is for Him to be like us, and like us, He can rescue us. Our weakness became His strength and His strength became our means for Salvation. Baby Jesus born on a manger on the first Christmas night came to us as a savior, Christ resurrected was for us a model, Jesus the king who will return became our just Judge.

Blessed Maria Emilia Riquelme Zayas:*SHE LED WOMEN AWAY FROM PROSTITUTION*Religious Virgin and Founder*Died: 1940

She was a Spanish nun and founder of the Missionary Sisters of the Most Blessed Sacrament and Mary Immaculate. Even when she was not yet a nun, she already took time to serve the sick in hospitals and help the poor. She also gave her money to poor young women to keep them away from prostitution. Her work and personal piety attracted other like-minded women. This became the start of her religious congregation. (<https://www.facebook.com/hagiografait>)

Saint Marianne's Feast Day Mass

Bishop Larry will celebrate Mass at the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa on January 23, 2023 at 6:30 p.m. for the Feast Day of Saint Marianne Cope. The Sisters of St. Francis are planning a brief presentation about Saint Marianne. They would like young people (youth and young adults) to be part of the presentation which involves reading from a script. Please share with your young people and their families. If you have any interest or have questions, please contact me: lgomes@rechwaii.org. Thank you.
