

St. Pius X now have a Blessed Mother Of Perpetual Help Framed Photo

The icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help represents the Christian mystery of Redemption.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a Byzantine icon that is believed to have its origin sometime during the 13th -15th century. The image is also known as "Our Lady of Perpetual Succour." The icon is known for being miraculous; over the centuries countless healings and special graces have been attributed to it, so much so that the image has been honored and venerated by many Popes.

The miraculous icon is painted on wood and measures about 20" in height (54 x 41.5 centimeters) and depicts the Virgin Mary, under the title "Mother of God," holding the Child Jesus.

The Archangels Michael and Gabriel, hovering in the upper corners, hold the instruments of the Passion. St. Michael (in the left corner) holds the spear, the wine-soaked sponge, and the crown of thorns. St. Gabriel (in the right corner) holds the cross and the nails.

The intent of the artist was to portray the Child Jesus contemplating the vision of His future Passion. Frightened by the vision, he runs to his mother for consolation. The anguish He feels is shown by the loss of one of His sandals as he quickly flees into the arms of his Mother.

Despite a forboding vision of suffering, the icon also conveys the triumph of Christ over sin and death, symbolized by the golden background as a sign of the glory of the resurrection. The royal crowns on the heads of Jesus and Mary also symbolize their triumph as the King of Kings with his Queen Mother.

In a very beautiful way, the Child Jesus grasps the hand of the Blessed Mother. He seeks comfort from His mother as He sees the instruments of His passion. The position of Mary's hands – both holding the Child Jesus (who seems like a small adult) and at the same time presenting Him to us – convey the reality of our Lord's incarnation, that He is true God who became also true man.

What Our Lady of Perpetual Help Means for Us

Just as the Child Jesus fled into the arms of his Mother when he was frightened, so too do we flee into the arms of our Blessed Mother with child-like confidence whenever fear envelopes our hearts. Just as the Virgin Mother consoled and comforted her Divine Child, so too does she console and comfort us, her spiritual children, in our afflictions. We can always come to her in our time of need and receive her help.

In this iconography, Mary is represented as the one who guides us to the Redeemer. The Virgin Mother is also our Help who intercedes with her Son on our behalf. The star painted on Mary's veil, centered on her forehead, highlights her role in the plan of salvation as both the Mother of God and our Mother.

To this day, the Church of St. Alphonsus in Rome displays the original icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. They are the guardians and promoters of the holy icon, the only religious order entrusted with the task of doing so with a venerated image of Our Lady.

Veritas, Caritas, Unitas

Truth, charity, unity - the three words that surround the medieval Mendicant Rose symbol of the 5 major religious mendicant orders (Dominicans, Franciscans, Augustinians, Carmelites, Servettes). No! We are not being forced to become members of these Catholic movements, but we are being invited to reflect upon the three words that gave birth to various charisms of the consecrated life. In the beginning of His apostolic ministry, Jesus already found himself surrounded by crowds of people eager to witness the charisma of His ministry and His gospel. As He imparted His words of hope for all the poor, suffering or forgotten, Jesus also had serious warnings against those focusing on earthly pleasures instead of pursuing higher values. The evangelical vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience were the result of the aspirations of many holy men and women to acknowledge in their own ways and means, the charism of Jesus, which is truth, charity, and unity.

The greater people of God are also invited to live the radical charism of Jesus in their own way, just like those who followed Jesus in their lives. Unity without charity leads to failure, charity without loyalty to the Truth of Jesus leads to arrogance, and any form of belief not rooted to the highest truth that is God leads to confusion. May we always live in the charism of Jesus.

In Memory of Father Thomas Joseph

Please pray for the repose soul of Father Thomas Joseph who died February 9, 2022 in India after struggling with brain cancer for some time. His funeral in Chengalam, India was on February 10. He was a priest of the Diocese of Honolulu and served in several parishes, including St. Pius X.

A memorial mass is scheduled here at St. Pius X on March 10 at 6:30 p.m. Presider will be Most Reverend Bishop Larry Silva

Fr. Tom was highly educated and well versed in the history of the church and his homilies were deep, reflective and from his heart. He loved Mother Mary so much he made sure SPX would have one of our own statue of her—Our Lady of Grace. I often saw him praying the rosary soon after opening the church doors. Presiding for the mass was his passion. He had a strong faith in God, he was always hopeful and he stood his ground. He touched many lives by administering the sacraments of the church. As we continue to pray for Fr. Tom, may he rest in peace. Now God has wiped away all his tears, for he was the anointed and beloved son of God.
