A Spanish Victim of Sexual Assault

Servant of God Marta Obregon Rodriguez

Today is the death anniversary of the Marta Obregon Rodriguez. She was a Spanish young layperson and member of the Neocatechumenal Way whose cause for being a Martyr of Chastity is currently being processed. One night, she was kidnapped by a man who had been accused before of homicide and rape. The man tried to rape her, but she resisted. She was severely beaten, stabbed fourteen times, and left naked near a highway.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

The Liturgy of the Eucharist, which comprises the second half of the Mass, is considered the deepest and most profound worship that we, the human race, can offer to God. Many people believe it is simply a re-telling of the Last Supper, but it is actually far more than that. The Liturgy of the Eucharist is indeed a reliving of that night at the Last Supper, but it also relives the fullness of Christ's passion, His crucifixion and death, and even His resurrection. In the Liturgy of the Eucharist, especially the Eucharistic Prayer, we partake in that one sacrifice of Jesus offering himself on the Cross and rising again. When we celebrate the Liturgy of the Eucharist, we are not simply remembering some events that took place 2000 years ago and showing them on some kind of stage. Rather, as we participate in the Liturgy, the reality of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection are made present to us in the Eucharist. It is almost like being transported back into the Hill of Calvary, witnessing the crucifixion and resurrection before our very eyes, although hidden from our mortal view under signs. Nonetheless, with eyes of faith, we behold Christ crucified and Christ risen when our eyes are drawn to the Holy Eucharist held out to us by the priest. This is why the Mass is both the most solemn and the most joyful event of our day, our week, and of our whole life. Every time we come to the Liturgy of the Eucharist; the entire event of Christ's redemptive sacrifice is made present to us. (Teaching Mass Memo from the Diocese of Honolulu)
