“Good Shepherd Sunday”

Good Shepherd Sunday 2026, marking the Fourth Sunday of Easter, falls on April 26, 2026. Franciscan Media and Catholic communities celebrate this day as a time to reflect on Jesus as the Good Shepherd (John 10) and often as Vocation Sunday. It emphasizes Christ's protection, guidance, and sacrifice for his flock.

Key Aspects of Good Shepherd Sunday (April 26, 2026):

- Significance: It is the Fourth Sunday of Easter, known as Good Shepherd Sunday, which emphasizes Jesus as the guide and protector of his followers.
- Liturgical Focus: The readings, often from Year B or Year C (2026 is Year B), focus on Jesus as the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for his sheep, as seen in John 10:11-16.
- Vocation Focus: It is also observed as World Day of Prayer for Vocations, encouraging prayers for priests and religious.
- Themes: Key themes include listening to Jesus' voice, following his path, and acknowledging Him as the gate to eternal life.

Second Collection April 25 & 26 Diocesan Priest Retirement Fund

Churches in The East Honolulu Vicariate are sponsoring a Walking With Moms Shower – This project supports over 20 moms with families in the "After Care program". These are moms that have moved on from the Mary Jane Home program but find that they still need assistance. Their families vary in size from one to four children.

You can help by

1. Donating a $25 gift card to Amazon, Target or Walmart. The Drop Box is in the entry to the church.
2. Inviting a new mom or expecting mom (and her family) to attend the shower.
3. Attending the shower yourself. You will find good food, fellowship, and happy faces!

The Walking with Moms Shower will be:

Sunday, May 17th, from 2pm - 4pm
Holy Trinity Church Gym in Kuliouou
5919 Kalanianaʻole Highway

If you plan to attend the shower please RSVP by May 10 to showerhtc@gmail.com.

Please bring all gift cards to church by Sunday, May 10th.

Thank you for helping us celebrate Life!

Diocesan Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, your Divine Son taught us to pray to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His vineyard. We earnestly beg you to bless our Diocese and our world with many priests, deacons and religious who will love you fervently and gladly and courageously spend their lives in service to your Son's Church, especially the poor and the needy. Bless our families and our children, and choose from our homes those whom you desire for this holy work. Teach them to respond generously and keep them ever faithful in following your Son Jesus Christ, that under the guidance of the Holy Spirit and with the Inspiration of Saint Damien and Saint Marianne the Good News of redemption may be brought to all.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

Saint Joseph the Worker May 01

To foster deep devotion to Saint Joseph among Catholics, and in response to the "May Day" celebrations for workers sponsored by Communists, Pope Pius XII instituted the feast of Joseph the Worker in 1955. This feast extends the long relationship between Joseph and the cause of workers in both Catholic faith and devotion. Beginning in the Book of Genesis, the dignity of human work has long been celebrated as a participation in the creative work of God.

By work, humankind both fulfills the command found in Genesis to care for the earth (Gn 2:15) and to be productive in their labors. Saint Joseph, the carpenter and foster father of Jesus, is but one example of the holiness of human labor.

Jesus, too, was a carpenter. He learned the trade from Joseph and spent his early adult years working side-by-side in Joseph's carpentry shop before leaving to pursue his ministry as preacher and healer. In his encyclical Laborem Exercens, Pope John Paul II stated: "the Church considers it her task always to call attention to the dignity and rights of those who work, to condemn situations in which that dignity and those rights are violated, and to help to guide [social] changes so as to ensure authentic progress by man and society."

Joseph is held up as a model of such work. Pius XII emphasized this when he said, "The spirit flows to you and to all men from the heart of the God-man, Savior of the world, but certainly, no worker was ever more completely and profoundly penetrated by it than the foster father of Jesus, who lived with Him in closest intimacy and community of family life and work."

Saint Peregrine

Peregrine Laziosi was born of a wealthy family at Forlì, Italy, in 1260. As a youth he was active in politics as a member of the anti-papal party. During one uprising, which the Pope sent St. Philip Benizi to mediate, Philip was struck in the face by Peregrine. When Philip offered the other cheek, Peregrine was so overcome that he repented and converted to Catholicism. Following the instructions of the Virgin Mary received in a vision, Peregrine went to Siena and joined the Servites. It is believed that he never allowed himself to sit down for thirty years, while as far as possible, observing silence and solitude. Sometime later, Peregrine was sent to Forlì to found a new house of the Servite Order. An ideal priest, he had a reputation for fervent preaching and being a good confessor. When he was afflicted with cancer of the foot and amputation had been decided upon, he spent the night before the operation, in prayer. The following morning he was completely cured. This miracle caused his reputation to become widespread. He died in 1345 at the age of eighty-five, and he was canonized by Pope Benedict XIII in 1726.

The Miracle Prayer

Lord Jesus, I come before You, just as I am. I am sorry for my sins, I repent of my sins, please forgive me In Your name, I forgive all others for what they have done against me. I renounce Satan, the evil spirits and all their works. I give You my entire self. Lord Jesus, now and forever, I invite You into my life Jesus, I accept You as my Lord, God and Saviour. Heal me, change me, strengthen me in body, soul and spirit. Come Lord Jesus cover me with Your precious blood, and fill me with Your Holy Spirit, I love You Lord Jesus. I praise You Jesus. I thank You Jesus. I shall follow

You every day of my life. Amen. Mary my mother, Queen of Peace, St. Peregrine, the cancer saint, all you angels and Saints please help me. Amen.

Prayer for yourself

St. Peregrine, whom Holy Mother Church has declared Patron of those suffering from Cancer, I confidently turn to you for help in my present sickness. I beg your kind intercession. Ask God to relieve me of this sickness, if it be his Holy Will. Plead with the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of Sorrows, whom you loved so tenderly and in union with whom you have suffered the pains of Cancer, that she may help me with her powerful prayers and loving consolation. But if it should be God's Holy Will that I bear this sickness, obtain for me courage and strength to accept these trails from the loving hand of God with patience and resignation, because he knows what is best for the salvation of my soul. St. Peregrine, be my friend and patron. Help me to imitate you in accepting suffering, and to unite myself with Jesus Crucified and the Mother of Sorrows, as you did. I offer my pains to God with all the love of my heart, for his glory and the salvation of souls, especially my own. Amen.

Prayer for someone who is ill

O great St. Peregrine, you have been called "The Mighty," "The Wonder-Worker," because of the numerous miracles which you have obtained from God for those who have had recourse to you. For so many years you bore in your own flesh this cancerous disease that destroys the very fiber of our being, and who had recourse to the source of all grace when the power of man could do no more. You were favored with the vision of Jesus coming down from His Cross to heal your affliction. Ask of God and Our Lady, the cure of the sick whom we entrust to you. (Pause here and silently recall the names of the sick for whom you are praying) Aided in this way by your powerful intercession, we shall sing to God, now and for all eternity, a song of gratitude for His great goodness and mercy. Amen.

Prayer to St. Peregrine, Patron of Cancer Patients

Glorious wonder-worker, St. Peregrine, You answered the divine call With a ready spirit, And forsook all the comforts of the world To dedicate yourself to God In the Order of His Most Holy Mother. You labored manfully For the salvation of souls; And in union with Jesus Crucified You endured the most painful sufferings With such patience As to deserve to be Healed miraculously Of an incurable cancer In your leg by a touch Of his divine hand. Obtain for me The grace to answer Every call of God And to fulfill His Will In all the events of life. Enkindle in my heart A consuming zeal For the salvation of souls; Deliver me from the infirmities that afflict my body (State your intention(s) here) Obtain for me Perfect resignation to the sufferings It may please God to send me, So that, imitating our Crucified Savior And His Sorrowful Mother, I may merit eternal glory in heaven. Amen.

St. Peregrine, pray for me And for all who invoke your aid.

St. Peregrine, pray for me And for all who invoke your aid.

St. Peregrine, pray for me And for all who invoke your aid.

PRAYER FOR THE SICK AND THE DYING

Father of Love and Mercy, You miraculously cured Saint Peregrine of an advanced cancer of his foot when the power of man could do more. You favored him with the vision of Jesus coming down from His cross to heal his affliction. Hear the prayers we offer, through the intercession of Saint Peregrine, for the cure of the sick and dying whom we entrusted to You. Pause here and silently recall the names of those for whom you are praying. May all who suffer pain, illness, or disease know that You are with them even in the depths of despair. Enable them to see Your plan and bring them closer to Your Son who accepted our suffering to teach us the virtues of meekness and patience as we carry our crosses through life.

PRAYER TO ST. PEREGRINE

O God, in St. Peregrine you gave us an outstanding example of faith and patience. We humbly ask you that by imitating and by the help of his prayers, we believe more fully in your healing help, bear the suffering of this life without wavering, and come with joy to the peace of heaven. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father.
