Saints Joachim and Anne's Story

Saints Joachim and Anne are the traditional parents of the Virgin Mary and the grandparents of Jesus. Though they are not explicitly named in the Bible, their story is preserved in early Christian texts.

According to tradition, Joachim and Anne were a pious, wealthy couple in Nazareth who struggled with infertility and endured the social shame of being childless. After Joachim was publicly turned away from the Temple for his sterility, he retreated to the desert to fast and pray. Meanwhile, Anne prayed in her garden, promising God to dedicate her child to the Lord's service if she were granted one.

Their faith and prayers were answered when an angel appeared to both of them separately, announcing that Anne would conceive a miraculous child. They subsequently became the parents of Mary, whom they dedicated to the service of the Temple in Jerusalem at the age of three, fulfilling Anne's promise.

MASS INTENTIONS

The best way to remember our dearly departed is by praying for them. And the best prayer we can offer is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Masses can be offered for health and healing, birthday blessings, in thanks-giving, etc.

So we encourage you to visit the parish office and register.

Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus

July 29

Martha, Mary, and their brother Lazarus were evidently close friends of Jesus. He came to their home simply as a welcomed guest, rather than as one celebrating the conversion of a sinner like Zacchaeus or one unceremoniously received by a suspicious Pharisee. The sisters felt free to call on Jesus at their brother's death, even though a return to Judea at that time seemed to spell almost certain death.

Martha's great glory is her simple and strong statement of faith in Jesus after her brother's death. "Jesus told her, 'I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?'" She said to him, 'Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world' (John 11:25-27).

No doubt Martha was an active sort of person. On one occasion, she prepares the meal for Jesus and possibly his fellow guests and forthrightly states the obvious: All hands should pitch in to help with the dinner. The Lord recognizes that Martha is "worried about many things," also noting that Mary, who has spent the preparation time at Jesus' feet listening to his words "has chosen the better part." John 12:1-8 describes Mary's anointing of Jesus' feet at Bethany, an act which he praised highly.

Immediately after we are told that the chief priests plotted to kill Lazarus "because many of the Jews were turning away and believing in Jesus because of him." Lazarus was the one of whom the Jews said, "See how much he loved him." In their sight Jesus raised his friend from the dead.

Legends abound about the life of Lazarus after the death and resurrection of Jesus. He is supposed to have left a written account of what he saw in the next world before he was called back to life. Some say he followed Peter into Syria. Another story is that despite being put into a leaking boat by the Jews at Jaffa, he, his sisters, and others landed safely in Cyprus. There he died peacefully after serving as bishop for 30 years.

It is certain there was early devotion to the saint. Around the year 390, the pilgrim lady Etheria talks of the procession that took place on the Saturday before Palm Sunday at the tomb where Lazarus had been raised from the dead. In the West, Passion Sunday was called Dominica de Lazaro, and Augustine tells us that in Africa the Gospel of the raising of Lazarus was read at the office of Palm Sunday.

Powerful Miracle Prayer to St. Martha

O blessed St. Martha, your faith led Jesus to proclaim, "I am the resurrection and the life"; and faith let you see beyond his humanity when you cried out,

"Lord I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God."

With firm hope you said, I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him, and Jesus called your brother Lazarus back from the dead.

With pure love for Jesus you welcomed him into your home.

Friend and servant of our Savior,

I too am "troubled about many things."

(Pause for silent prayer.)

Pray for me that I may grow in faith,

hope and love, and that Jesus, who sat at your table,

will hear me and grant me a place at the banquet of eternal life.

Amen.

Prayer for the Intercession of Saint Lazarus

Dear Saint Lazarus, friend of Christ Incarnate and patron of the poor and the sick. I request your intercession, with the aid of the Holy Spirit; May the Lord, Who prefigured His Resurrection through your own miraculous rising, always guide me in my earthly pilgrimage and protect me in sickness and in health. Together with Saint Martha and Saint Mary, you welcomed the Savior into your home.

May I do the same by welcoming Jesus into my heart and serving Him faithfully in my brothers and sisters. Help me to imitate Christ more perfectly.

Holy St. Lazarus give me the strength to overcome all temptation and difficulty.

May your witness inspire me to have faith and hope in Jesus, especially amid great trial.

Pray that I will display heroic virtue and persevere in love so as to merit to be received by God into the halls of heaven.

I ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who lives and reigns with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever.

Amen.
